Steven:

Thanks for the note. Much appreciated. It has been 24/7 for me for the past 4 weeks. Hope that all is well with you.

Best,

Tony

Having just come back from Australia where coronavirus is hands down a national emergency, I've been thinking about you again and all the good work you do to keep us safe.

I was with someone who's a diplomat with the Australian government who said "it's much, much worse than the Chinese would have you believe. Much worse." Melbourne and Sydney were deserted almost immediately of Chinese tourists and students. I luckily flew through DOHA.

Hang in there. It's always something.
